Film Friday event with a viewing of "Lust for Life," a 1956 film about the life of Vince Van Gogh starring Kirk Douglas.

Lust for Life (1956) is a MGM (Metrocolor) biographical film about the life of the Dutch painter Vincent van Gogh, based on the 1934 novel of the same name by Irving Stone. Vincent van Gogh's obsessive devotion to his art engulfs, consumes and finally destroys him. The film stars Kirk Douglas as Van Gogh and James Donald as his brother Theo, along with Anthony Quinn as Van Gogh's fast friend and rival Paul Gauguin.
